

What to Bring to Your WIC Certification Appointment

1. Each person who is applying for WIC.
2. A parent, guardian, or caretaker of an infant or child who is applying for WIC.
3. Proof of Identity (for yourself and each person who is applying for WIC)

For example:

- Driver's license
- Photo ID
- Marriage license
- Hospital record
- Immunization record
- Birth certificate

4. Proof of Address

For example:

- Bill or business letter addressed to you
- Rent receipt
- Current driver's license

5. Proof of Income (Income documents for everyone in your household who works or has a source of income.)

For example:

- Paycheck stub(s) for the past 30 days; if paid biweekly, bring 2 pay stubs; or, if paid weekly, bring 4 pay stubs.
- Award letter for alimony, child support, social security (including SSI).
- Unemployment or worker's compensation.

You may automatically be income eligible if you or certain family members participate in Medicaid, Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF), or Food Stamps (SNAP)

Proof of eligibility is needed:

- Medicaid card for Medicaid
- Award letter for TANF or SNAP

6. Immunization Record(s)

- Immunization record(s) for all infants and children up to age 2 years who are applying for WIC.
